Exhibit dates: Friday March 27 - Friday May 22

Artist Reception: Friday, March 27, 6pm - 8pm

The Focus, which includes CPA members Barbara Guin, Mike Guin, Alan Clark, Don Ducey, Harry O'Connor, Brenda Wynn and Jo Bolton, are exhibiting at Bond Park, 150 Metro Park Dr., Cary. The exhibit runs from March 3rd until March 30th.

Reception is Friday, March 27th, 6pm-8pm. The title of the show is "The Focus on What Speaks to Me". As a group of individuals, they share common ideas and themes, but each have their own perspectives. They use these perspectives to seek and photograph things and places that fit their interests. In this exhibition, members of The Focus present images that "Speak" to them.

Jon Meyer's image, "Just Another Pretty Landscape," took 3rd place in color in the Cap City Camera Club print competition 2/17/20.

Also, Jon Meyer was the invited Guest Artist at the Johns Hopkins University's Photographic Portfolio Class on 2/21/20. He talked with the students about how to conceptualize and then create a portfolio and showed examples from one of mine. He then helped critique the students' work.

Melissa Theil's article about wildlife in Rajasthan was published in the winter issue of Camera in the Wild, the magazine of the Carolinas Nature Photographers Association.
