November 2020

Celebrating our Members:

Barbara Guin is the 3rd artist to be featured in JJ Raia's First Friday Showcase. The Showcase is an expansion of JJ's blog in an effort to help photographic artists stay connected and continue sharing work during Covid-19. Visit the blog https://jjraiaphotography.wordpress.com/2020/10/29/first-friday-showcase-barbara-s-guin/?fbclid=IwAR2fgeKcrA905QFr4COJpw6bITMhS_eD4lxIcMDJCZo1hLUdMf2tZmCtdkQ and if you haven't already, sign up to follow it.

Jon Meyer's image, "Self-Reflection," was juried from among international entries to hang in the Photo Place Gallery, Middlebury, VT, in a show entitled "Portals: Windows, Mirrors, and Doors." Forty images were selected to hang in the gallery; another 40, not selected for hanging in the gallery, will be in an online gallery. The show will run from November 26 to December 26. The images selected for gallery hanging are online:

You may remember that "Self-Reflection" was the lead-off image in his recent solo show at Through This Lens gallery in Durham.

David Ley had an image selected for display in the on-line gallery of the Washington Post Travel Photos 2020 competition

Programs

Nov. 11 - Valerie Jardin - Street Photography: First Steps and Beyond. In this presentation Valerie will give an overview of the different ways to approach street photography. She goes over the ethical aspect of this popular genre of photography, the do's & don'ts and how to get over the fear of photographing strangers in the streets. Through examples from her body of work Valerie will show you different techniques to tell a story in a frame and ways to make stronger street photographs. You will leave this presentation with a renewed vision. Her website is

Nov. 25 – No meeting – Happy Thanksgiving!

Dec. 9 - Wednesday, 7 pm Irene Sacilotto - A Passion for Wildlife Photography, the Stories Behind the Images This talk is based on my more than 35 plus years' experience photographing wildlife and covers the requirements, strategies, techniques, and equipment required to capture engaging images of animals in their natural habitat. Included is information on lighting and composition, plus locating, attracting, and approaching wildlife. The program is interwoven with some entertaining stories behind some of the images. Photos from my recent urban wildlife projects acquired during the COVID19 crisis have been newly added to the program. It provides ideas for photographers who are not traveling far from home at this time. Her website is <http://www.ospreyphoto.com>

CARY PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTISTS TREASURER'S REPORT

October 31, 2020

October is a happy month for the CPA Treasurer when Juried Show submission fees come in and few of the expenses have yet to be paid. A few dues payments trickle in, but there's not much other activity. (If you haven't yet renewed your membership, please do.) Our excellent Programs Committee has been serving up great programs at modest cost so that doesn't create much stress for your Treasurer. Alas, the rest of the fiscal year is mostly expenses with little additional revenue, but we're very well positioned for that.

CPA Critique Study Group

CPA's monthly critique session has gone virtual on ZOOM.

The next session is 4:30-6:30

Thursday, November 19th.

Please submit up to three jpg images to rkevinnc@gmail.com

by Wednesday evening November 18th

Our meeting format hasn't changed except as dictated by the ZOOM platform.

There are small but significant changes to the image submission guidelines. Please note and follow them. Please use a new convention in labeling the images (not the CPA convention).

1CPA_NAME_9/11. Where 1 is the sequence number and NAME is your name.

Please put 11/19 Critique in the subject line of a new Email.

Please DO NOT reply to an Email thread with your submissions. Google does not do well in keeping the attached files linked to the correct sender in threads. Those who submit images will receive an invitation to join the Zoom session Thursday morning. If you are not submitting images but would like to observe without commenting, let Richard know. He will send you the link.
